

A Good Team

I met you in the fall of '99
When I was in my prime
You wanted to change the world it seemed
And up and down you still believe
With a sense of adventure
And caring, loving soul

Now you're the mother of two
With a daisy flower tattoo
You let your spirit soar so free
Pants rolled up to your knees
On the wide ocean sand
You know I'm lucky man

You see that couple walking
Holding hands and softly talking
Making plans for baby and life
That was you and me, my wife
Long ago and far away
But wasn't it yesterday?

Now you're the mother of two
With a daisy flower tattoo
You let your spirit soar so free
Pants rolled up to your knees
On the wide ocean sand
You know I'm lucky man

Your eyes are like the wide open blue
In a cloudless Dakota sky
Amber waves of grain at twilight
Keeping up and keeping on
You're the one I sing my songs to
Best it was said by you
Damn, we're a real good team
Damn, we're a real good team

I'm no longer a young man
But my life with you, it don't grow old
We might change a few dreams and plans
Cozy fire'll keep out the cold
We're making a good life
We're raising our two girls
They'll be confident and strong
When we send them into the world

Now you're the mother of two
With a daisy flower tattoo
You let your spirit soar so free
Pants rolled up to your knees
On the wide ocean sand
You know I'm lucky man
