

Bloom

Time's the pounding of the rain
And the beating of the drum
The letters of your name
The circle of the sun
It's way past the great beyond
The joy and the pain
The children singing songs
Time don't come back again

The cold wind will blow
Then the flowers will bloom
'Til the leaves on the trees
Fall with the moon
When the cold wind leaves
Flowers will bloom

Time's the pounding of the rain
And the beating of the drum
The letters of your name
The circle of the sun
It's way past the great beyond
The joy and the pain
The children singing songs
Time don't come back again

The cold wind will blow
Then the flowers will bloom
'Til the leaves on the trees
Fall with the moon
When the cold wind leaves
Flowers will bloom
Bloom

Bloom
Bloom, bloom
